The big death occurred at a general hospital to start the week, but fans are not convinced. Given the character actor's recent interview and general theories about what's going on, it's safe to say that fans shouldn't be upset and death is fake. Warning: Spoilers lower for general hospital hospital Benard as Sonny at the General Hospital in 2011 | Patrick Winmore/Walt Disney Television via Getty Images Taggart died during Monday's episode of Marcus Taggart, who returned to the show 17 years later because of original portrayal of Rial Andrews. was filmed on the show late last week. The heroine was shot dead after rescuing his daughter Trina Robinson and her friend Cameron Webber. The teenagers were adopted by Goons linked to Cyrus Renault, who has a vendetta in Port Charles, primarily against Taggart and Jordan Ashford. In rescuing teenagers, he was shot, and underwent surgery on Monday's episode. Later, he apparently dies of a blood clot, but it doesn't seem convincing that the character could go so soon. His last conversation was with his rival Sonny Korintosh, and he asked him to take care of Trina. The character can't be dead because it's not a short trick The main reason we know Tagert isn't dead is that it's not a short return for the show for Andrews, he's back on a long way. The actor has also just interviewed Soap Opera Digest recently and has spoken about his future on the show, so surely it's all not going to go on and he's set to be killed. He even spoke candidly about his return and overwhelmingly positive response from fans. The actor said, I was just blown away by the answer. It was really humbling and powerful. I don't walk or say, Hey, I was Taggart. I'm the wrong guy. I'm a big supporter of how amazing it was to be Taggart 17 years ago, it's in the past, man. I always say: Let's make history instead of reading the story. To get that kind of support from people I don't even know was just amazing, serious. I knew at the time I was going to be on the show, but obviously I couldn't say anything. I was like, Oh, man, they'll be excited when I come back! Fans aren't convinced that Taggart is dead and have theories it doesn't seem to need to completely break down why Tagert is still alive because fans already have their theories. Many think Sonny is involved in helping him articulate his death. I think he is in protective custody with Curtis, Jordan, Laura, and maybe Jason and Sonny defending him. There is no way GH is blunt enough to bring tagert back just to kill him. I think that and Liz & The Singing helped them too. Both nurses have done this before for others,' said one fan. Many viewers made it clear that it would just be a bad move overall to bring Andrews back just to have it gone. You better not just killed Marcus Freekin Tagert. Better hope his death was fake or I swear to Lucifer!! We didn't just @relandrews back, just to let it go again! It's better to be a fake death,' said one person. Another fan added: I think he is in protective custody with Curtis, Jordan, Laura, and maybe Jason and Sonny defending him. There is no way GH dumb enough to bring tagert back just to kill him. I think that and Liz & The Singing helped them too. Too. nurses have done this before for others. General Hospital airs weekdays on ABC. Financial market data on Quotemedia.com. All rights reserved. As always, it's not so much a list of things to run out and buy right now, just like: Buy this now, not later if you're on the market. We usually include some suggestions during the ug season, but in the summer the best deals are often to the tail end - great appliances in the post-remodel wind season. Old computers: CNET's John Morris tells MSN Money that July and August can sometimes bring savings on slightly older computer models as AMD and Intel release schedules see computer makers ramp up to release new gear around this time of year. Laptops: Post Per Gizmodo, and the knowledge of what it is when major retailers and direct sales manufacturers start piling up deals back to school. Yahoo! Finance suggests it's also a good time to pick up your camping gear. Children's clothing: Because even if you don't have a child going back to school, you can have a child you can buy gifts at the moment. If there are children, think in addition to the immediate needs of the fall. Guilt: Somewhat obvious, of course, but you can also block some hard to find, find, Wines at the start of the harvest season, according to SmartMoney.com.Linens and Storage Containers: They're aimed at the incoming college crowd at this time of year, as AOL Shopping suggests, but you don't need to show a college ID to pick up some of the things you almost always need.
